

Hunch Ventures backs health-tech startup MyHealthcare

01 August 2018 | News

The startup will use the funds to scale the platform and expand its operations to Indonesia and Malaysia.

Gurugram-based InnoCirc Ventures Pvt. Ltd, which operates digital integrated healthcare technology platform MyHealthcare, has raised $2 million (Rs 13.7 crore) in its Series A funding round led by investment firm Hunch Ventures.

Angel investor Ajay Nanavati, non-executive chairman at state-run Syndicate Bank and a former managing director at 3M India, has also put money in this round.

The startup will use the funds to scale the platform and expand its operations to Indonesia and Malaysia.

MyHealthcare offers services such as electronic medical records (EMR), health trackers, emergency services, video consult and health monitoring. It acts as a technology partner for the hospital network across all its patient-facing services. It counts hospitals under Fortis Healthcare Ltd among its clients.