

Medlife awarded India's Best Pharma Delivery e-Platform Company

16 October 2018 | News | By Sonali Wankhade

Medlife awarded India's Best Pharma Delivery e-Platform Company by Frost and Sullivan in 2018 ,Annual Best Practices Awards in India recognised sectors for Innovation & Leadership

Medlife, India's largest online e-pharmacy Company, has been awarded India's Best Pharma Delivery e-Platform Company of the Year by Frost & Sullivan at the 5th Annual 2018 India Best Practices Awards. The Annual Best Practices Awards in India is presented across industry sectors such as Electronics & Appliances, Energy & Environment, Digital media, Industrial Automation & Process Control, Metals & Minerals, Mobility, Tech Vision and Transformational Health, following a comprehensive research and analysis were done by the eminent jury members.

Frost & Sullivan Best Practices Awards is part of the Global program that recognizes outstanding industry achievements by companies across the globe. It recognizes companies for their overall performance and efforts in achieving excellence in the ever-changing business environment through superior leadership, technological innovation, customer service and strategic product development.

Medlife with a market share of over 45% in the e-pharmacy space in India has been exploring newer horizons in Tier 2 and Tier 3 cities and not restricting its operations to Metros while developing various customer-centric healthcare product and services and providing the solution to people belonging to every pocket of the society.

Medlife strives to be the best in the healthcare hub, with intent to offer its users the convenience of an online pharmacy where one can get prescribed medicines delivered at your doorstep in a hassle-free manner. Adhering to all the applicable laws and regulations, they have successfully branched their operations in over 465+ cities.