

Medvarsity receives award for Training & Development in healthcare

28 November 2018 | News

Medvarsity has built a portfolio of end-to-end healthcare training programs for its students, over the period of 18 years.

Medvarsity, a pioneer in online medical training, has been awarded the 'Excellence in Training & Development in Healthcare Education' award at the 4th edition of the ABP Healthcare Leadership Awards, 2018, in Mumbai.

The award recognized the company's contribution to strategic training and development in the educational field. Medvarsity has built a portfolio of end-to-end healthcare training programs for its students, over the period of 18 years. It offers courses specially designed for MBBS Doctors and AYUSH in various advanced skill set which will be beneficial for their career growth to a great extent. Additionally, it also caters to Nurses, Dentists, Physiotherapists, Dietitians, Medical Technicians & Managers as well, through its exclusive courses.

With time, Medvarsity has helped empower healthcare professionals from all over the world and takes pride in stating that 20 percent of its students are based out of Europe, Asian countries apart from India, Middle East and Africa.