

Bajaj Finserv offers Waterborne Diseases Cover for Waterborne Illnesses

15 July 2019 | News

Along with hospitalization expenses, the Waterborne Diseases Cover from Bajaj Finserv also covers a range of medical requirements.

In 2018, more than 1.3 crore people were diagnosed with waterborne diseases in India, according to data reported from the CBHI & Ministry of Health. Moreover, 2,439 people also lost their lives to waterborne diseases like typhoid, cholera, viral hepatitis, and acute diarrhoeal diseases.

Doctors and medical professionals observe a spurt of these diseases during the monsoon season. Hence, opting for an effective insurance policy that provides adequate financial coverage for waterborne diseases is essential. Here are a few features and benefits of the Waterborne Diseases Cover from Bajaj Finserv.

Pocket-Friendly Insurance

Treatment for these diseases is expensive and can drain your savings quickly if you do not have a good insurance plan. With the Waterborne Diseases Cover from Bajaj Finserv, you can get coverage up to Rs. 50,000 at just Rs. 349 per annum. Here, the premium amount is affordable and helps you take care of all your medical expenses with ease.

Maximum Coverage-

Along with hospitalization expenses, the Waterborne Diseases Cover from Bajaj Finserv also covers a range of medical requirements. These include diagnostic tests conducted before and after hospitalization, doctor's fees and medications required before, during, and after hospitalization and other treatment expenses. This insurance also provides coverage for hospital room rent as per the specified limit. You can claim Rs. 1,000 per day as normal room charges and Rs. 2,000 per day as ICU charges.

However, the insurance can be claimed only after 30 days from the commencement of the policy period and is valid for one year.
