The award recognizes Dr. Reddy's proactive and methodical approach in addressing the global sartan APIs concern

At the recently held 6th Annual Global Generics & Biosimilars Awards in Frankfurt, Germany, Dr. Reddy's has been awarded with the prestigious API Supplier of the Year. The award recognizes Dr. Reddy's proactive and methodical approach in addressing the global sartan APIs concern.

Speaking on the achievement, Deepak Sapra, Global Head of Pharmaceutical Services and Active Ingredients' business, commented, "Dr. Reddy's began its journey 35 years ago with the API business. Today, we are on a journey to be the world number one partner for APIs and Pharma Services. This award is a testimony to our strength in customer service, regulatory and scientific excellence, and supply of high quality APIs enabling our global pharma customers to accelerate access to affordable medicines worldwide."

The Global Generics & Biosimilars Awards reward 'best practice' in both industries, as well as encourage improvements in every aspect of the way business is conducted. The award ceremony was hosted during CPhI Worldwide, on November 5th, 2019 by the Generics Bulletin.
