

Sceptre Medical awarded as 'India's most admirable healthcare brand-2020'

11 September 2020 | News

One of the first pharmaceutical companies in the region to introduce a line of Ayurvedic disinfection products

Sceptre Medical India, a leading manufacturer of antiseptic and disinfectants, has been awarded India's Most Admirable Healthcare Brand-2020 (Category: Emerging Healthcare Brands) for its impeccable contribution to the healthcare industry.

Sceptre Medical India has emerged as one of the leading warriors during the Coronavirus pandemic. With a presence in antiseptics, wet wipes and disinfectants segments, Sceptre's product range includes hand hygiene and skin antiseptics, surface and environment disinfectants, instrument disinfectants, haemodialysis disinfectants, wet wipes, antiseptic swab stick for skin preparation, and other ancillary medical accessories.

The Brand Story awarded Sceptre Medical India with India's Most Admirable Healthcare Brand-2020 for its unwavering efforts in achieving technical and technological competence, advanced products, prime focus on ethics and compliance, constant endeavour to commit to delivering its products and services.

Under the able leadership of Mr. Sanjay Manocha (Managing Director), Sceptre Medical, India Pvt. Ltd. has emerged as a market leader with a distribution network spreading all over India, and around the globe.

Sceptre has been a pioneer in the pharmaceutical and medical devices industry with its clients ranging over 65 hospitals like Max Healthcare, Fortis, Fresenius Medical Care, Apollo Hospitals, Rajiv Gandhi Cancer Institute and Research Centre.

Sceptre recently became one of the first pharmaceutical companies in the region to introduce a line of Ayurvedic disinfection products. Sceptre diversified its product offerings by adding Ayurvedic products like hand sanitizers, hand soaps, fruits and vegetables' cleaner, introduced with the sole aim of bringing effective sanitization and disinfection to homes.