

Calicut Centre for Surgery partners with Niramai to provide contact-less breast cancer screening

26 October 2020 | News

Niramai's innovative solution called 'Thermalytix', is an automated breast health screening and diagnostic tool

Dr Ambadi's Calicut Centre for Surgery (CCS) located at Metromed Hospital, Kerela has recently partnered with Bangalore-based NIRAMAI Health Analytix, India's foremost Al-based breast cancer screening company, to offer contactless, privacy-sensitive, breast cancer screening services to customers.

Niramai's innovative solution called 'Thermalytix', is an automated breast health screening and diagnostic tool, which combines the

With this collaboration, w omen can also avail of home-screening services which will bring this novel non-touch breast cancer screening solution to the door-

The test will be conducted in complete privacy without any physical contact. NIRAMAI Thermalytix testappropriateowomenof & yearsandabove its rivacy-awaren on-invasive; adiation-free and and etect the ninutes of the abnormalities.