Dr Harsh Mahajan steps in as new NATHEALTH President

30 March 2021 | News

He succeeds erstwhile President, Preetha Reddy, Executive Vice Chairperson, Apollo Hospitals

Dr Harsh Mahajan, Founder and Chief Radiologist, Mahajan Imaging, has taken over as the new President of NATHEALTH. He succeeds erstwhile President, Preetha Reddy, Executive Vice Chairperson, Apollo Hospitals.

Siddhartha Bhattacharya, Secretary General, NATHEALTH will continue to head NATHEALTH secretariat while lending support to the leadership team, working towards the goal of making NATHEALTH, a platform which will provide opportunities for the sector to engage, collaborate and devise solutions for the long-standing challenges.

Dr Mahajan said, "The next 5 years are crucial for the Indian healthcare industry for improving the quality of healthcare to ensure we are future ready to deal with any medical emergency. Efforts made by the sector in harnessing local manufacturing capabilities and vaccines has placed India on the global map. NATHEALTH will continue to advocate for innovative partnership models to build a modern 21st century universal healthcare delivery model in India.

Dr Shravan Subramanyam, Senior Vice President, NATHEALTH commented, "Our larger goal is to ensure that, no one in India is deprived of healthcare services, even in the farthest corner of the country."

Dr Ashutosh Raghuvanshi, Vice President, NATHEALTH said, "Our common and ultimate aim is to provide world-class healthcare to the masses at affordable prices thereby achieving UHC in India.

Ameera Shah, Secretary, NATHEALTH said, "NATHEALTH will continue to provide a collaborative platform to facilitate dialogues to establish a value-based proposition to ensure last mile healthcare delivery."

Sunil Thakur, Treasurer, NATHEALTH said, "NATHEALTH will work on a priority basis to suggest commercially viable healthcare financing models that aligns national and state priorities of offering outcome based quality and affordable healthcare to every Indian citizen."