

Sarvodaya Healthcare to open 230-bed super-speciality hospital

27 January 2022 | News

The hospital is likely to function from August 2022 in Greater Noida

Sarvodaya Healthcare has flagged off a new 230-bed hospital in Greater Noida. The hospital is likely to be functional by August 2022. With this hospital, they expand their footprint into Greater Noida (West) and will be catering to the community of Greater Noida and UP West.

Sarvodaya Hospital, Greater Noida (West) will cater to all minor and major medical issues and emergencies for the area. Sarvodaya Healthcare will set a benchmark in super-speciality with its holistic treatment for adults and children in the area of cardiac sciences, neurosciences, orthopaedics & joint replacement, urology, nephrology, gastroenterology, pulmonology, internal medicine, gynaecology and paediatrics, and more.