

The budget is silent on ways and policies to boost domestic R&D in MedTech: J Mitra & Co

03 February 2022 | Views

Jatin Mahajan, MD, J Mitra & Co and Jt Coordinator (IVD) @ AiMeD

"We are dismayed by the Union Budget 2022 completely overlooking the fair expectations of the MedTech industry. There has been a lot of focus on future-speak – with elaborate mentions of digital and infrastructure, but the existing concerns of MedTech industry have been completely neglected. The budget is silent on ways and policies to boost domestic R&D in MedTech / healthcare segment."