

Qure.ai raises $40 M from Novo Holdings and HealthQuad

29 March 2022 | News

The funding will accelerate the AI-driven healthcare company's expansion into the global market and support new product development

Mumbai-based startup Qure.ai has secured $40 million in a funding round led by Novo Holdings and HealthQuad, supported by existing investor MassMutual Ventures.

Qure.ai will use the new investment to extend and strengthen its global reach, especially in the US and Europe, and intensify product development for critical care and community diagnostics.

Qure.ai has created a niche for itself with advanced technology that reads and interprets medical images like X-rays, CTs, and Ultrasounds in less than a minute, making equitable and high-quality healthcare a reality across the globe. Qure's AI solutions are FDA-approved, CE-certified, and evaluated by the World Health Organization.
