

PM inaugurates 500-bed multispeciality hospital in Navsari, Gujarat

10 June 2022 | News

The hospital will incorporate a range of advanced multi-disciplinary equipment, putting it on par with the finest healthcare facilities

PM Narendra Modi inaugurated a 500-bed, state-of-the-art, multispecialty and cancer hospital complex at Navsari in Gujarat. The cancer hospital is part of an eight-acre AM Naik Healthcare Complex which also includes a residential enclave for consultants, specialists, nurses and paramedical staff.

The hospitals will prove to be a boon to south Gujarat in terms of advanced medical care. It will incorporate a range of advanced multi-disciplinary equipment, putting it on par with the finest of healthcare facilities.