

Ram Nath Kovind inaugurates upgraded Ayush Wellness Centre in President's Estate

24 June 2022 | News

A book documenting the functioning and key milestone of Ayush Wellness Centre in Rastrapati Bhavan was released

The upgraded Ayush Wellness Centre in the President's Estate, New Delhi was inaugurated by President of India Ram Nath Kovind in the presence of Union Minister of Ayush Sarbananda Sonowal, Union Minister of State for Ayush Munjpara Mahendrabhai Kalubhai and other dignitaries. First lady Savita Kovind also graced the inauguration ceremony.

Ayush Wellness Centre (AWC) at President Estate started on 25th July 2015, as a joint initiative of the Ministry of Ayush and the President Secretariat. The AWC has treatment facilities in the streams of Ayurveda, Yoga and Naturopathy, Unani, Siddha & Homeopathy, and it caters to the medical needs of the President and officials of the President's Secretariat and residents of the President's Estate. The upgraded infrastructure along with facilities for the Ayush system will follow standard protocols of treatment.

A book documenting the "establishment, functioning and key milestone" of Ayush Wellness Centre in Rashtrapati Bhavan was also released at the Rashtrapati Bhavan Cultural Centre by Minister of State for Ayush Munjpara Mahendrabhai Kalubhai in the presence of Vaidya Rajesh Kotecha, Secretary, Minister of Ayush and KD Tripathi, Secretary to the President.