Zyla Health raises $1 M funds in pre-Series A round

05 July 2022 | News

The company is targeting 5X growth this year with the latest infusion of funds

Zyla Health has raised $1 million in fresh funding as part of its pre-series A round, to accelerate its growth. “Zyla will use the funds to strengthen the leadership and invest in integrating Zyla’s care product across the ecosystem for growth,” said Khushboo Aggarwal Founder & CEO.

Before this fresh raise of funding, Zyla raised capital from leading institutional investors, Kae Capital and Secocha Ventures. The company is targeting 5X growth this year with the latest infusion of funds.
