BioSpectrum
the business of Bi 24 years of leveraging the business of Bio
www.biospectrumindia.co

Rural health-tech startup Medyseva raises Rs 15 M

13 September 2022 | News

The startup plans to utilise the funds for expanding and strengthening its IT infrastructure

Medyseva, an Indore-based telemedicine healthcare startup, has raised Rs 15 million in pre-series funding under Startup India Seed Fund Scheme from AIC RNTU Bhopal. The company also received funds from a group of angel investors like Mohit Gulati, Mandar Joshi, Yamika Mehra, Ankita Vashistha, Aarti Gupta and Dr Vivek Bindra which was led by Horses Stable for building a robust network of its flagship initiative of Medyseva Kendra’s in rural India.

The startup is working towards empowering existing healthcare offerings in Tier II and Tier III regions with a sustainable regional outreach.

It is focusing on telemedicine in rural India has set up Medyseva Kendras offering consultation and services like pathology, radiology, hospitalisation, ambulance and home care services. The startup plans to utilise the funds for expanding and strengthening its IT infrastructure, adding more services to its portfolio for providing holistic patient care under one roof and onboarding specialist doctors to ensure smooth delivery of services for the rural sector.