Mumbai-based startup Medikabazaar has joined hands with Andhra Pradesh Med Tech Zone (AMTZ) to set up an 8000 sq ft fulfillment centre within their premises. The centre will cater exclusively to the manufacturing units within the MedTech zone, providing better reach, availability, and faster delivery of healthcare products manufactured at AMTZ.

Medikabazaar's robust supply chain and health-tech platform will enable the fulfillment centre to streamline the distribution of medical equipment and supplies manufactured at AMTZ. This partnership will help both companies expand their reach and further strengthen the healthcare infrastructure of the region.

This partnership between Medikabazaar and AMTZ is a significant step towards creating a more robust healthcare infrastructure in the region. It will undoubtedly help bridge the gap between manufacturers and end-users of medical equipment and supplies, ultimately benefiting patients and healthcare professionals alike.
