Drucare took up Pre-Series A round funding

16 July 2024 | News

Drucare will allocate the funds to marketing and business expansion

Healthtech startup Drucare has raised $1.2 million in its Pre-Series A round from SATRA Services and Solutions in June 2024. SATRA Services and Solutions is a multi-disciplinary consulting company, headquartered at Hyderabad.

Drucare will allocate the funds to marketing and business expansion, along with additional operational expenses. Dr Rajendra P. Vennam, Founder, CEO & CTO, Drucare said, “In the upcoming months, Drucare hopes to grow up and increase its footprint both domestically and globally in addition to adding new services to its present roster of over 40plus services for healthcare practitioners across Clinics, Hospitals, Pharmacies, Diagnostics, Medical Colleges of all sizes and numbers.”

Founded in 2016 by professionals from diverse backgrounds, Drucare offers a variety of solutions and services to various healthcare organisations. The company has built India's most integrated healthcare SaaS platform. DrucareONE provides the IT infrastructure needed by clinics, hospitals, medical schools, laboratories, pharmacies, providers and patients.

The startup has reviewed and evaluated the needs with regard to the HCO’s requirements for Healthcare Management Information System (HMIS) aligning to the NHA (ABDM), NMC & NABH guidelines.
