Zynova Shalby Hospitals appoints Reny Varghese as Chief Operating Officer

15 October 2024 | News

Varghese is well-equipped to navigate the dynamic challenges of healthcare management

Zynova Shalby Hospitals, Ghatkopar, Mumbai has announced the appointment of Reny Varghese as the new Chief Operating Officer (COO). With a distinguished career spanning over 24 years in healthcare management and administration, Varghese brings unparalleled expertise and leadership to the hospital's operations.

Before undertaking the role of COO, Varghese served as the Chief Administrative Officer (CAO) at Zynova Shalby Hospitals, where he played an integral part in streamlining hospital functions and improving operational efficiency.

His prior experience includes leadership roles at several prominent healthcare institutions, including Wadia Hospital, Hinduja Healthcare, and Apollo Health and Lifestyle. He also contributed to public health initiatives during his time as an Honorary Advisor for the Commissionerate of Police, Thane.

Varghese's leadership will drive the hospital's mission to evolve beyond conventional treatment and emerge as a centre for overall wellness. Under his guidance, Zynova Shalby aims to integrate modern technology into its services, enhancing patient outcomes and ensuring top-tier medical care.
