Ameera takes charge from the erstwhile president Abhay Soi

NATHEALTH, an apex body representing the Indian healthcare industry, has announced Ameera Shah, Promoter and Executive Chairperson, Metropolis Healthcare as its new President for FY 2025-2026.

Ameera takes charge from the erstwhile president Abhay Soi, Chairman and Managing Director, Max Healthcare Institute. This was announced in the Annual General Meeting post the 11th NATHEALTH Arogya Bharat Summit 2025 in New Delhi recently.

Joining Ameera in the new leadership are Dr Sangita Reddy, Joint Managing Director, Apollo Hospitals Enterprise Ltd as Senior Vice President and Himanshu Baid, Managing Director, Poly Medicure Ltd as Vice President; Varun Khanna, Group Managing Director, Quality Care India Ltd, elected as Secretary, NATHEALTH, and Rishubh Gupta, Managing Director, India and Neighboring Markets, Roche Diagnostics India, as Treasurer, NATHEALTH.

This distinguished team of industry leaders brings a wealth of expertise and experience to drive NATHEALTH's mission of advancing India's healthcare landscape and ensuring equitable access to quality care.

In his ongoing role as Secretary General, Siddhartha Bhattacharya will continue to lead the NATHEALTH Secretariat in fostering strategic partnerships, uniting healthcare stakeholders through regional chapters, and working closely with policymakers to shape the future of healthcare in India.
