Galgotias University and GIMS Hospital join hands to boost medical research

19 June 2025 | News

To promote the biomedical and pharmaceutical research opportunities

Galgotias University’s School of Medical and Allied Sciences has signed a significant Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with Government Institute of Medical Sciences (GIMS) Hospital, Greater Noida.

The collaboration, formalised in the presence of senior officials from both institutions, aims to accelerate clinical innovation, research, and hospital-based training in the field of Medical and Allied Sciences.

This partnership will enhance hands-on learning, foster academic excellence, and equip students with future-ready healthcare skills.

It also aims to utilise animal house facilities for research and to attain advancement in medical and academic collaboration.

Vice Chancellor of Galgotias University, Prof K Mallikarjunna Babu said, "The pact is a transformative milestone that lays the foundation for long-term cooperation and innovation within the vital domains of healthcare and medical research. This agreement represents our shared vision to contribute meaningfully to the advancement of science and healthcare innovation by leveraging each other’s strengths."
