

Glenmark conferred the "Civic Award 2014"

26 September 2014 | News | By BioSpectrum Bureau

Glenmark honored by Bombay Chamber of Commerce and Industry

Glenmark Pharmaceuticals has been awarded the Civic Award 2014 for Social Development by the Bombay Chamber of Commerce and Industry. The award was presented to the company for its exemplary initiatives in the area of Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) through which the company has positively impacted over 600,000 lives till date.

Glenmark Foundation, the company's CSR arm has been implementing several projects for the benefit of the less privileged sections of the society under three core areas: Child Health, Sustainable Livelihood, and Employee Volunteering.

"The award is a testament to our continued commitment of enriching lives and making a positive difference in the communities in which we operate. It acknowledges Glenmark's contribution in impacting over 600,000 lives through our initiatives in Child Health, Sustainable Livelihood, providing access to healthcare through medicine donation, and global employee volunteering programs. I am sure this prestigious recognition by a leading industry body will provide us the impetus to pursue our mission of enriching lives with renewed vigour," said Ms Cheryl Pinto, director, corporate affairs, Glenmark.

The Civic Awards are presented by the BCCI every year to publicly acknowledge and honor notable achievements undertaken by corporate organizations to improve their environmental, social, and cultural metrics by way of services to the community in addition to outstanding operational performance.