

Rank 20 - Reva Institute of Science and Management

05 August 2009 | News

Rank 20 - Reva Institute of Science and Management

Reva Institute of Science and Management, a unit of Divya Sree Group. The trust established this institute in 2002. The department of Biotechnology at the institute offers MSc Biotechnology with an intake capacity of 56 students, MSc Biochemistry with an intake capacity of 20 students and MPhil in Biotechnology with an intake capacity of two students. All the courses of this institute are recognized by Bangalore University, while MPhil is affiliated to ies. The institute has seven laboratories for biotech students. The laboratories have latest equipments that can fulfill the research needs of biotech students who aspire to become researchers. Each laboratory can accommodate 16 students at a time. Library with its vast selection of subject-oriented books helps enhance knowledge of the students. To enable students to access international journals online the institute has provided 25 computers with internet facilities.