

Sequel Logistics wins SME Business Excellence Award 2014

03 December 2014 | News | By BioSpectrum Bureau

Sequel Logistics wins SME Business Excellence Award 2014

SEQUEL LOGISTICS was honoured as the award winner at the SME Business Excellence Awards 2014 in the mid corporate segment for excellence in the transportation and logistics sector. The Times Group, Federal Bank, and Dun and Bradstreet has joined hands to launch the "SME Business Excellence Awards 2014" to recognise India's leading SMEs.

The chief guest Mr Jayant Sinha, Minister of State, Ministry of Finance, Government of India felicitated the award winners. Speaking on the occasion, Mr Sharad Jobanputra, chairman and managing director, Sequel Logistics said, 'It is honour to receive this prestigious award. Sequel has relentlessly pursued excellence for more than a decade to win the trust of our customers.'

The minister also released D&B's premier publication, 'Leading SMEs of India 2014' along with Mr Kaushal Sampat, president and MD-India, Dun & Bradstreet, Mr Abraham Chacko, executive director, Federal Bank and Mr Ravindra Nath, chairman and MD, National Small Industries Corporation.