

Rohit Aggarwal to oversee Huntsman India operations

06 July 2015 | News | By BioSpectrum Bureau

Rohit Aggarwal to oversee Huntsman India operations

Huntsman India, a global manufacturer of differentiated chemicals has announced the appointment of Mr Rohit Aggarwal as the VP and MD of Huntsman India operations. He will be reporting directly to Mr Paul Hulme, president, Huntsman Textile Effects division.

According to the press release, Mr Aggarwal will have corporate oversight over the company's India operations and focus on increasing the company's asset base, external partnerships and investment in India and the subcontinent.

Mr Agarwal was previously the CEO, Asia Pacific for Louis Dreyfus. Prior to which he was with Huntsman as a strategic marketing director in the advanced materials division before moving to textile effects as vice president. He has more than 20 years of experience in the chemical industry.

Speaking on the appointment, Mr Paul Hulme said, "I would first like to thank Steve Stilliard for his valuable contribution throughout his stint at Huntsman India. He has displayed commendable leadership and keen sense of business insights in India which has positioned us for growth in India."