

Dr Reddy's announces management changes

28 August 2015 | News | By BioSpectrum Bureau

Dr Reddy's announces management changes

Mr Umang Vohra, is moving out of the organization and has consequently stepped down from the position of executive vice-president and head North America Generics.

Mr Alok Sonig, executive vice-president and head India Generics will now take over as executive vice-president and head North America Generics

Mr MV Ramana, who is currently executive vice-president - Emerging Markets, has assumed additional charge and is now executive vice-president and head Branded Markets (India and Emerging countries).