First NABH Accredited Hospital in Goa: Wockhardt

12 August 2013 | News | By BioSpectrum Bureau

First NABH Accredited Hospital in Goa: Wockhardt

Wockhardt hospitals Ltd. today, announced that the Wockhardt Hospital, goa has received accreditation from National Accreditation Board for hospitals and Healthcare Providers (NABH), the highest national recognition and a mark of quality patient care and safety.

Ms. Zahabiya Khorakiwala, MD, Wockhardt Hospitals commented on this achievement, "We are proud that our Goa has been accredited by NABH. We are continuously striving hard towards providing the best of services to our patients, enabling the benefits of the latest technological development in the field of medicine.This accreditation strengthens our commitment to fullfil the needs of the community and provide patients care."

Dr KK Kalra, CEO, NABH spoke on the benefits of accreditation to the patients, society as well as medical community. He expressed "It was a moment of pride for NABH also to be awarding the first accreditation to Goa, which is the 15th state in the country to have an accredited hospital. It is the continuous efforts of the Quality Council of India and NABH to ensure quality of care tye patients avail at a hospital."