Earlier in December, 2015, NATCO and Alvogen settled a patent infringement with Gilead Sciences, Inc., Hoffmann-La Roche Inc., F. Hoffmann-La Roche Ltd. and Genentech, Inc.

Under the terms of the settlement, NATCO's partner Alvogen will be able to market the oseltamivir phosphate capsules before the expiration of the pediatric exclusivity period listed in FDA's Orange Book for U.S. Patent No. 5,763,483, which is February 23, 2017.

TAMIFLU oral capsules had U.S. sales of approximately $403 Million for twelve months ending December 2015, according to IMS Health.
