

Aanjaneya Lifecare bags Global Peacock Award 2012

18 February 2013 | News | By BioSpectrum Bureau

Aanjaneya Lifecare bags Global Peacock Award 2012

Mumbai-based Aanjaneya Lifecare, the vertically integrated pharma company with manufacturing and marketing capabilities in APIs with focus on anti-malarial and finished dosage forms (FDFs) catering to various therapeutic segments, has received the Golden Peacock National Quality Award-2012 in Bangalore on February 8, 2013 in the presence of business leaders, jurists, academics, environmentalists, economists, legislators and policy makers during the 23rd World Congress on Leadership and Quality of Governance.

Aanjaneya Lifecare has been selected as the winner of the 'Golden Peacock National Quality Award' on account of its formidable growth momentum under tough business environment for the year 2012 by the awards jury under the chairmanship of justice PN Bhagwati, former chief justice of India and member, UN Human Rights Commission, Justice MN Venkatachaliah, chairman, IOD Advisory Council and former chief justice of India were among the judging panel for this year's Golden Peacock Awards. The coveted award was received by Mr Kashi Vishwanath, chairman of Aanjaneya Lifecare.

On receiving the award, Dr Kannan Vishwanath, vice-chairman and MD, Aanjaneya Lifecare said, "This coveted title of Golden Peacock National Quality Awards reflect the resounding success of Aanjaneya Lifecare in the pharmaceutical industry in a short span of time and meeting the tough global challenges of keeping the winning momentum, This Award is a standing testimony of the entire Aanjaneya Lifecare's internal and external stakeholders who have reposed faith in our organization."

The Golden Peacock Awards is a set of prestigious national and global awards designed to improve productivity and quality in organizations.