Government unleashes website to elevate medical tourism in India In addition, the hospital would also provide assistance to the medical travellers in obtaining medical visas.

In order to promote India as a hot destination for healthcare services, The Union Ministry of Commerce and Industry along with ministries of Tourism and Health has launched a website.

The website is a single-source platform providing a comprehensive information to medical travellers on the top healthcare institutions spread across major cities of the nation —highlighting its speciality in various medical treatment, wellness and rejuvenation, and Ayurveda & Alternative medicine.

The Union Ministry of Commerce and Industry along with ministries of Tourism and Health has launched a website designed to promote India as a premier healthcare destination.

“Over the years, India has grown to become a top-notch destination for medical value travel because it scores high over a range of factors that determines the overall quality of care,” the website, indiahealthcaretourism.com reads that also supports Arabic, Russian and French languages.

Once the traveller selects one or a few hospitals from the portal, an ID is provided used to stay connected with the respective hospital staff.

In addition, the hospital would also provide assistance to the medical travellers in obtaining medical visas. It sends them an invitation letter which needs to be presented at the ‘Embassy’ or ‘High Commission’ of India based in their respective country.
